SOUTHEND EAST COMMUNITY ACADEMY TRUST

Register of Significant Control

SECAT has considered whether there are any individuals or legal entities that have significant control over the charitable company.

In doing so, it notes that the Academy Trust has five Members, which effectively means that no one person has voting rights in excess of 20%, and that the Trust's Board of Trustees are generally classed as excepted roles.

The Academy Trust is satisfied that there is no such registrable person or legal entity in relation to the charitable company.
